Additional features and info

- Many options:
- Owner has had a conceptual for a 4 lot subdivision completed and is available upon request if you are a developer or someone that just wants future potential.
- If you are looking for your own slice of heaven for privacy and/or a horse property look no further. This land abuts hundreds of acres of conservation land with hiking and walking trails.
- There is a small 2 story cottage on the property that is currently occupied. Live in it while you build your dream home? Use it as a guest cottage? Knock it down! Your choice.
- As with all development, building plans etc be sure to do your due diligence with the town regarding zoning, building codes etc.
- Call (604) 674-4675 for more info or with questions.
